

The North Shore Fire Company voted at its 2008 Annual Meeting to charge for grass fires and for faulty alarm calls. These calls take member of the Fire Department away from their work and leisure unnecessarily with out of pocket expense. The funds collected will be put in an account to pay members a gratuity on retirement.